Mr. Salehi's court has been held behind closed door

According to our news from Saghez (a city in the west of Iran) yesterday 01-02-2005 the court against Mr. Salehi who is a labore union representative, has been held behind the closed door.

The trial began at 10.00 AM by judge Taiaarei and with presentation of Mr. Salehi and his lawyer Mr. Mahmood Sharif.

After 10 minutes pause during interrogation, the trial has been ended at 11.40 AM without any conclusion or verdict.

At the beginning of trial Mr. Salehi has protested against his detention and the way that his trial has been held. but the judge has pointed his accusation at Mr. Salehi for his support for Komala organisation, taking part in 1 may 2004 demonstration, his denunciation of killing of workers in the city Khatoonabad by Iranian security forces, condemnation of execution of Mr. Mohamad Golabi and being present in his burial, meeting with delegation of confederation of free workers union (ICFTU) which he explain the deterioration of condition of iranian working class to them and at last his several times imprisonment till 1 may 2004.

But Mr. Mohamad Sharif has defended his client and refused all accusations against Mr. Salehi. and in his turn also Mr. Salehi has refused all accusations by judge and answered all of them. he said that he is chosen by labore union to defend their right and he has done what he has to do but nothing else.

Komala organization condemn all such a show process against 1 may demonstration detainees in the city Saghez and asks all Labore Unions, leftists political parties and Humanrights organisations to condemn such a unjustified trials and demands freedom for all detainees.
