

Support the Syndicate of Workers of Tehran and Suburb Bus Company's demands and strike.

The Syndicate of Workers of Tehran and suburb Bus Company (Sherkat-e-Vahed) through an official communiqué has asked whole drivers and workers in different parts of the company to stage a strike on 28 Jan 2006 in support Mr Mansour Osanloo, the leader of Tehran Bus Company's Syndicate who was detained on 22 Dec 2005, as well as recognition of Syndicate by the government and acceptance of sixth collective contract.

Announcement of this protest and preparation for the strike shows that the struggle of workers at Sherkat-e-Vahed has entered a new phase. The Islamic Republic Regime has always opposed the creation of independent workers unions and based on this policy the gathering of Sherkat-e-Vahed syndicate were systematically attacked by the thugs and rogue belonging to Islamic Workers Council. And finally the agents of Intelligence Ministry has ransacked the homes of leader and the board members of Tehran Bus Company Syndicate on 22 December 2005 and arrested them. Islamic Regime was hoping that by arresting these unionists, they would be able to stop the workers activities. But united struggle of Sherkat-e-Vahed's workers has hit tills prevented the Islamic Regime from achieving its goal.

Continuation of Sherkat-e-Vahed's workers struggle along with proclamation of the strike and preparation for it will surely lead to victory for the Syndicate of Sherkat-e-Vahed. The Syndicate of workers of Tehran and suburb Bus Company is one of the valuable achievement of Iranian workers struggle therefore it should be whole heartedly supported by the working class as well as the freedom loving people.

The communist party of Iran, support the Syndicate of workers of Tehran and suburb Bus Company protest and strike for their just demands and appeal to the workers activists as well as freedom loving people world over to support the Sherkat-e-Vahed's workers protest and strike.
