

Condemn the inquisition courts of the Islamic Republic of Iran

On May the first of this year hundreds of workers and their families gathered in a park in the Saghezcity in Iranian Kurdistan to celebrate the May day international workers day. The Islamic Police and Security Forces attacked the demonstration and arrested more than 40 people . Four of those who organized the meeting, Mahmoud Shalehi spokesman for the Backers union of the city, Mohammad Abdipour ,Borhan Divangar an Jalal Hoseinie, were among the detainees.

The detained in the jail exposed to harsh interrogation and torture. After eleven days of hunger strike and massive support from their families and the local population an international campaign organized by Iranian workers and left wing activists in European and American labor union brought them temporary release.

But now, the Islamic Regime want to prosecute them. Their trial will be held on the August 23 and 24. These workers have been accused of being a member of the KOMOLA, a Kurdish left wing organization that been outlawed by the Islamic Regime.

We believe , all citizen of a society as well workers and labour union activists entitled to the right of having political views of their own or supporting a political party they sympathize with.

Buy using the pretext of being a collaborator or member of an outlawed organization the Islamic regime wants to prosecute them.

We appeal to all labour unions, political parties and all those who defend the freedom of speech and assembly to speak out in solidarity with the Iranian workers and against the Flagrant violations of workers democratic rights in Iran.
