Iranian Government has to stop violate the workers democracy and human rights

The Labor activists Mahmud Salihi, Jalal Hosseini, Mohsen Hakimi, Mohammad Abdipour and Burhan Diwargar took part in organizing the May 1 March in Kurdish area on May 1, 2005. After the march, they were arrested with 50 of the other people. 7 people were put into jail after the arrest, and Mahmud Salihi, Jalal Hosseini, Mohsen Hakimi, Mohammad Abdipour and Burhan Diwargar were among the 7 people.

The prisoners were in hunger strike for 11 days, and International Labor's union has made pressure to the Iranian government and also paid bail for their release. Since the release, they have been in the court for man times for the reason of organizing the May 1 march. Later, they were also cussed of being the Communistic Party member of KOMALAH, not allowing the defense lawyer of VAKI to participate and monitor the trial.

The revolutionary islamic court of Sakiz city sentenced Mahmud Salihi, Jalal Hosseini, Mohsen Hakimi on Dec 9, 2005 and Mohammad Abdipour, Burhan Diwargar on Dec 12, 2005 as the followings:

Mahmud Salihi, 5 years in prison, and exile to Qerwan city area for 3 years
Jalal Hosseini, 3 years in prison
Mohsen Hakimi, 2 years in prison
Mohammad Abdipour, 2 years in prison
Burhan Diwargar, 2 years in prison

We sign here as individual and organizations to condemn the oppression to the labor by the Iranian tyranny Islamic government. We demand to withdraw and revoke immediately the ungrounded sentences of send Mahmud Salihi, Jalal Hosseini, Mohsen Hakimi to prison. At the same time, we demand International Labor Organization to dismiss the Iranian Islamic labor's organization which only functions as a doll for the tyranny Iranian government. Iranian worker has right to establish own independent labor organization.
