

NEWS FROM KURDISTAN

BANEH

1. According to received news from city of Baneh a person in the name of Hamed Ghaderi came in contact with mine around one of the regime police stations in Banvan's village. He was wounded severely. From 1996 until now 460 people have been killed and 1022 people have been mutilated in the Kurdish villages as the result of mine explosion.
2. On Wednesday 28th of December, 2005 pedlars in city of Baneh grappled with officials of municipality. At the same time they protested in front of municipality. Objector pedlars brought to an end their protest when the regime forces got there.

SANANDAJ

The regime wage-earner ruined houses of hard-working people under the pretext of non-permit of construction in this city. In the course of this wildly action 172 houses were demolished by order of mayor and the city council. After that all of residents of this area protested in front of governor's office On Tuesday 27th of December, 2005. At present those people do not have any cottages for living in this cold weather. This demolished area is located around city of Sanandaj and its name is Sayed Hassan's valley.

SAGHEZ

On Sunday 25th of December, 2005 nine people in the names of Sadi Khademi, Mohya Azadi, Ata Mohammadzadeh, Fardin Farajpoor, Salah Sadat, Baha Shojai, Navzad Alai, Payman Sedighiani and Shahram Ansari were trialed on charge of taking action against national security in city of Saghez. They had been arrested in the course of recent demonstrations in the cities of Kurdistan.